

The screenshot shows the website for Space 12 Gallery. At the top is a banner with the text "space12gallery" in a stylized font. Below the banner is a navigation menu with links: ABOUT SPACE 12, EXHIBITIONS, REVIEWS, ARTIST INDEX, CONTACT INFO, PLANNING A VISIT, and PRESS RELEASES. The main content area is titled "Eric Bourdon" and contains a paragraph of text: "Space 12 exclusive to the US, introducing, from France, artist Eric Bourdon. Eric Bourdon comes to us from Lille, France with his bright, seemingly animated paintings of fantastic scenes in near neon colors. His work is shown in four galleries in France, but only Space 12 here in the US. We think you'll be as excited about the work of this young and prolific talent as we are." To the left of this text is contact information: "12 Union Park Street Boston, MA USA 02118 617-423-9760 email". Below the text are three small images of Eric Bourdon's artwork, each with a number to its right: "No. 123", "No. 121", and "No. 112". At the bottom left of the page is the copyright notice: "© 1998 - 2002 Space 12 Gallery".

Eric Bourdon

Space 12 exclusive to the US, introducing, from France, artist Eric Bourdon. Eric Bourdon comes to us from Lille, France with his bright, seemingly animated paintings of fantastic scenes in near neon colors. His work is shown in four galleries in France, but only Space 12 here in the US. We think you'll be as excited about the work of this young and prolific talent as we are.

Greg Shea
Space 12 Gallery

The first (1997) contemporary fine art gallery in Boston's South End neighborhood.

Recognized by the Improper Bostonian Magazine as "Boston's Art Provocateur, 2001" and by the South End News Reader's Poll "Best Gallery, 2002".