Six years already ! Six years that Mike Jannings has worked tirelessly for the powerful American organization of the Clearers, which disseminates revolutionary self-improvement techniques to the four corners of the planet.

The tragic disappearance of his father, possessed by a disturbing hatred for the clearers, allowed him to move up at full speed in the secret hierarchy of the Organization.

But while Mike will finally be able to approach its mysterious Founder, the traits of the personality that he is gradually starting to distinguish seem strangely familiar to him...

♥ In the paperback book, Éditions de La Méduse offers you, in addition to the thriller, a selection of three short texts by young contemporary authors : "Running hand" ("Main courante") and "Devilled chicken" ("Poulet à la diable") by Muriel Parsy, and "Diamond crane" ("Grue diamantée") by Antoine Defoort !
